MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Petitioner, Norman P. Koster, a federal prisoner, has filed what he labels as a motion for writ of habeas for relief of conviction pursuant to Rule 60(b)(1),(2),(3),(6). In the motion he raises various issues which he contends show ineffective assistance of trial counsel and appellate counsel for failing to raise such issues in his prior motions brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Koster's conviction on direct appeal was affirmed in United States v. Koster, 163 F.3d 1008 (7th Cir. 1998). His § 2255 motion was denied by this court on September 26, 2000, and the Court of Appeals denied his request for a certificate of appealability on March 14, 2001. A request for a second or successive petition for review was denied by the Court of Appeals on August 23, 2002. Rule 60(b) generally cannot be used as an end run around the federal habeas corpus prohibition against a second or successive application for habeas relief in the district court. See 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(1)(2), (3)(A); Harris v. Cotton, 296 F.3d 578, 579 (7th Cir. 2002). The present motion does not raise any appropriate basis set forth in § 2244(b)(2) for the failure to raise these issues in his first § 2255 motion, nor any other reasons to grant Rule 60(b) relief. See Dunlap v. Litscher, 301 F.3d 873 (7th Cir. 2002).

as an end run around the federal habeas corpus prohibition against a second or successive application for habeas relief in the district court. See 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(1)(2), (3)(A); Harris v. Cotton, 296 F.3d 578, 579 (7th Cir. 2002). The present motion does not raise any appropriate basis set forth in § 2244(b)(2) for the failure to raise these issues in his first § 2255 motion, nor any other reasons to grant Rule 60(b) relief. See Dunlap v. Litscher, 301 F.3d 873 (7th Cir. 2002). This court is without jurisdiction to entertain this motion and it is dismissed. Foster's separate motion for bail is denied.
